Mandatory Condition # 1: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: On July 29, 2013, Louis Harris signed his judgment for case number 2:12CR00139-RMP-1, indicating he understood all conditions ordered by the Court. Specifically, Mr. Harris was made aware by his U.S. probation officer that he must not commit another federal, state, or local crime while on probation.

Louis Harris violated mandatory condition number 1 by being arrested for illegally possessing a controlled substance, Alprazolam, on March 30, 2018.

According to the Lewiston Idaho Police Department report number 18-L4601, Mr. Harris was contacted by police after the vehicle he was driving was traveling the wrong way down a one-way street.

The officer spoke with Mr. Harris, who advised the officer he did not have a driver's license. Mr. Harris was asked to exit the vehicle. The officer observed some small blue pills in the seat where Mr. Harris was sitting, along with his wallet and some loose cash. The pills were later identified to be Alprazolam. There were also two small round yellow pills, which were later identified as Clonazepam.

Mr. Harris was transported to the Nez Perce County Jail where he was charged with driving without privileges, as well as possession of prescription pills without a prescription.

Mr. Harris claims to have a valid prescription for both Alprazolam and Clonazepam; however, after speaking with Mr. Harris' U.S. probation officer, it was discovered he only has a prescription for Clonazepam.

Mandatory Condition #2: The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

Supporting Evidence: On July 29, 2013, Louis Harris signed his judgment for case number 2:12CR00139-RMP-1, indicating he understood all conditions ordered by the Court. Specifically, Mr. Harris was made aware by his U.S. probation officer that he shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

Louis Harris violated mandatory condition number 2 by illegally possessing a controlled substance, Alprazolam, on March 30, 2018.

According to the Lewiston Idaho Police Department report number 18-L4601, Mr. Harris was contacted by police after the vehicle he was driving was traveling the wrong way down a one-way street.

The officer spoke with the Mr. Harris, who advised the officer he did not have a driver's license. Mr. Harris was asked to exit the vehicle. The officer observed some small blue pills in the seat where Mr. Harris was sitting, along with his wallet and some loose cash. The pills were later identified to be Alprazolam. There were also two small round yellow pills, which were later identified as Clonazepam.
